

A Holiday Fable with Musical Interludes

“The Beloved Bull and the Sausage Horse” is a Christmas fable written and recited by poet and writer Daniel Pociernicki. The story explores the timeless mystery of the creative spirit. Through a meeting with two very unusual animals, a potter is able to renew his spirit and the magic of his work. The reading is complemented by seasonal music and carols.

Daniel Pociernicki, Narrator
Christine Springer, Soprano
Brian Swager, Harp & Organ

SAN JOSE
Immanuel Lutheran Church
1710 Moorpark Avenue

Tuesday 9 December 2014
7:30 PM
Free Admission/ Freewill Donation

SAN FRANCISCO
Unitarian Universalist Church
1187 Franklin Street

Tuesday 16 December 2014
7:30 PM
$20 Suggested Donation